Make a creative connection!

We welcome you to the 10th Annual Howard Hanna Mt. Lebanon Artists' Market. Join our celebration as we exhibit 67 amazing artists selected for their quality, originality, and unique vision of the arts.

Speak with the talented artists and discover their inspiration.

Feel the creative energy as you walk through the booths.

Find your own artistic muse.

Art is an integral part of our daily lives and the Mt. Lebanon's community. We invite everyone to make connections with our community, our culture, and our neighbors. The Artists' Market invites everyone to share, enjoy, and explore the beauty and vision our artists have created.

CHAIR

What is the Mt. Lebanon Partnership? We are a nonprofit volunteer organization founded to create a vibrant community in Mt. Lebanon by promoting economic growth in the Mt. Lebanon commercial districts on behalf of business owners, property owners and residents. The partnership presents events such as the Artists Market throughout the year that are designed to bring together residents and businesses in our exciting commercial districts. Visit the Partnership website (mtlebopartnership.org) for a calendar of events and more information on how to get involved.

meet our jurors

Huck Beard is a prolific photographer in artistic and journalistic media. He is Creative Director at Pittsburgh Magazine and has also art-directed lifestyle and city-regional magazines in Florida, Vermont, and Pennsylvania. He has enjoyed artistic collaborations with Artists Circle Fine Art, Chatham Baroque, Carnegie Mellon University, Glass Box Group, Hazelwood Green, Jade Piano Trio, Jade Scott Design, Keep Florida Beautiful, Mellon Foundation, NAI Pittsburgh, Opera Theatre of Pittsburgh, PNC Bank, Resonance Works, Syracuse Opera, Voces Solis, Westminster Choirs, Whiteford Taylor Preston, and the Yards at 3 Crossings. He is founder of the Abandoned Pittsburgh project, which has led to the publication of three books in the Abandoned Pittsburgh series. The project documents the Steel City's forgotten industrial and community sites where beauty in decay still exists. He is also a writer, with three novels completed. He has been interviewed on the podcasts Bad Ass Writers, Reluctant Book Marketer, and The Sh*t No One Tells You About Writing. He is currently working on his fourth novel and a collection of short stories.

Mark Bender's artisan illustration is classically inspired and hand crafted, combining traditional media with contemporary technology to create compelling imagery that connects with the audience. His visual vocabulary pulls from vintage advertising of the 20's and 30's, WPA and propaganda posters, giving contemporary concepts a timeless motif. Mark's meticulously crafted images have been incorporated into advertising campaigns, packaging, annual reports, CD jackets, children's books, murals, posters and magazines. Recognized by Communication Arts Magazine, 3X3 Magazine, Archive 200 Best Illustrators, Creative Quarterly and the New York Society of Illustrators, Mark has been included in the society's annual exhibitions and in Original Art, the best in children's book illustration. A member of both the NY Society of Illustrators and the Pittsburgh Society of Illustrators, he has also been awarded both gold and silver Addys and a prestigious silver medal from the New York Society of Illustrators. Mark has been nurturing young illustrators for more than a decade as a faculty member at the Art Institute of Pittsburgh, where he received the 2008 Inez C. Hall outstanding faculty member of the year award. Mark is a proud member of the "Syracuse Syndicate", receiving a Masters in Illustration from Syracuse University.

Susie Bradley, a seasoned graphic designer with over 40 years of experience founded and runs her own design firm, where she has had the privilege of working on diverse projects. Throughout her career, she has crafted impactful visual solutions for clients across various industries. Her expertise lies in branding, print design and corporate identity. Her artistic journey began during her childhood, as she sketched airline logos while moving to Switzerland. She is also a proud graduate of Carnegie Mellon University, where she earned a BFA in Graphic Design. She has nurtured her passion for creativity by renovating the oldest house in Carnegie, PA. And when she is not immersed in design, you'll find her exploring art galleries, seeking inspiration, and continuing to nurture her passion for creativity and creative endeavors.
