

Mt. Lebanon Partnership Artists' Market Jurying Process

The Mt. Lebanon Artists' Market is a juried fine arts festival committed to presenting high-quality, original artwork in a professional and welcoming environment.

We are proud to showcase both established and emerging artists whose work reflects strong craftsmanship, originality, and creative vision. Our goal is to curate a diverse and balanced show that offers visitors an exceptional artistic experience.

Inclusive & Fair Review Process

The Artists' Market welcomes artists from across the region and beyond. We encourage applications from creators working in a wide range of mediums, styles, and techniques.

Applications are reviewed solely on artistic merit and event fit. All applicants who apply before the deadline receive equal consideration. Applying early does not provide an advantage.

In some cases, applications may close early if the maximum number of submissions is reached. Any early closures will be clearly communicated on the event website and through official communications.

Jury Panel & Evaluation Criteria

After the application period closes, submissions are reviewed by a panel of independent jurors with backgrounds in the visual arts and arts administration.

Jurors evaluate each applicant based on:

- Artistic quality and craftsmanship
- Originality and creative vision
- Cohesiveness of the artist's body of work
- Professional presentation of artwork and booth display
- Consistency between submitted images and described work
- Appropriateness for a juried fine arts festival setting

Jurors review submitted images and application materials only.

Selection & Event Balance

Following individual scoring, juror ratings are compiled and averaged.

Artists are then selected based on overall scores while also ensuring a balanced representation of artistic mediums. This approach helps create a dynamic event that showcases a variety of artistic styles and disciplines while maintaining high standards of quality.

Because the Artists' Market is juried and space is limited, not all qualified applicants can be accepted. Previous participation does not guarantee acceptance in future years.

Our Commitment to Artists & Audiences

The jury process is central to maintaining the quality and reputation of the Mt. Lebanon Artists' Market. We carefully curate each year's event to provide:

- A high-quality experience for visitors
- Strong sales opportunities for participating artists
- A professional presentation environment
- A diverse and engaging mix of artistic mediums

We greatly appreciate the time and effort artists invest in applying and thank all applicants for their interest in being part of the Artists' Market.
